Beside using for festooning, may be easily made into various designs—monograms, mottoes, letters, figures, etc.

Order Liberally. Nothing else in the line of decorative material will give anywhere near the satisfaction for the money invested.

$3.15 pays for 150 yards (15 rolls), prepaid which will go far towards making a large church look delightful.

NOTE.—This festooning being made of light tissue paper, may be somewhat crushed in transportation, but can be quickly restored by passing the roll through the hands. Sections should be joined together by tying the ends with a bit of cord.

BUSY BEE CLUB.

A final meeting prior to the "Bee Hive" entertainment for the benefit of raising money to purchase curtains for the new Roger Williams University, was held Monday afternoon from 3 to 6 at the residence of Mrs. E. M. Lawrence, 1927 Ament street. There is a continuous growing interest in the club and under a stirring president like Mrs. G. H. Bandy the ladies can but expect success to crown their efforts. They meet with some few adversities—some few hills must be climbed—yet they are never daunted. They are looking for their reward from the public. That reward they hope will come to them, in the appreciation of the public and friends of the school for the strenuous effort they are making towards the re-establishment of Roger Williams University. December is here and before the issue of another copy of the Globe, the "Bee Hive" Entertainment will have passed from the scene and new ideas will be filling the minds of the readers and new thoughts will be crowding for precedence. Hence, let all please bear in mind the "Bee Hive" Entertainment at Spruce Street Baptist Church, December 9, 10 and 11. All preparations necessary for the success of this entertainment have been made and the club can do is to wait the result.

The club desires all of its members to eat supper at the "Bee Hive" Monday night. Mr. and Mrs. Young, assisted by Mr. Blodson, of Mount Olive Baptist Church, will serve an excellent supper and Mesdames Young and Bell will have the children of North, West and South Nashville to render a program.

The concert Monday night will be free. So don't fail to come out and hear the children.

Tuesday and Wednesday nights will be equally as interesting. The children of East Nashville are working hard to entertain all in a pleasing and creditable manner. The Meharry Band will render several favorite selections. Wednesday night, Mrs. Tart, one of our Nashville girls, who has traveled extensively and won for herself much fame, has kindly consented to give us her support. The Booths will be artistically arranged and the "Novelty Booth" will be filled with choice holiday gifts. The "Doll Booth" will please everybody. Price and beauty will go hand in hand. So don't fail to come out and buy the Xmas dolls from us.

The tiny sock (made of purple and white) that we sent to our many friends will be good only for Tuesday and Wednesday nights. The club hopes that its friends will multiply the number of sock you wear by 2, and not the number of shoe you wear.

The club desires all of its members to meet at Spruce Street Baptist Church Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock to arrange the booths.

The club will hold its next meeting with Mrs. R. L. Miles, 1106 Twelfth avenue, South. It is hoped all members will be present at the meeting December 16.

WHAT TO GIVE FOR CHRISTMAS.

As the holidays approach one naturally begins to think of some appropriate present to give a friend close by or far away. It is not always the most expensive present that is more highly appreciated; in fact, it is never the intrinsic value that is to be remembered or thought of, but the occasion as well as the one who gives the token. Many people of rank and wealth send only Christmas cards which are kept for years and years as gentle reminders of some dear friend. A beautiful and appropriate Christmas present that would be serviceable, ornamental and beneficial, one that would lend much to the happiness on Christmas and revive the record made by one of the race's most prominent authors, would be a book selected from the many productions of this noted poet and author, Paul Laurence Dunbar, needs no introduction to the reading world, yet many of our people have not had a copy of this book upon their shelves, and, since his death, to purchase one of these would be a rare treat and a valuable present. The following is a list of his productions with their prices:

BISHOP TYREE RETURNS HOME NEXT TUESDAY.

Bishop Evans Tyree, the resident Bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, will return home Tuesday, December 10, from Texas. Since leaving home the latter part of October he has held six conferences in the Tenth Episcopal District of his church which comprises the states of Oklahoma and Texas.

This has been the banner year of Bishop Tyree's administration in that district. In his educational rally he raised nearly $11,000 in the state of Texas alone, which was turned over to the trustees of Paul Quinn College at Waco. This amount was contributed by the Negroes of Texas, not a single contribution amounting to $100. The conferences were organized thoroughly and put to work, and each presiding elder was delegated as a captain or chief of his district. Two rallies were held; one in the spring and one in the fall, and each time over $5,000 raised. This does not include the connectional money for education which is collected on Easter Sunday of each year.

The Texas conferences are making a strong bid for the return of Bishop Tyree by the next General Conference
